FINRA Compliance Officer Statement

Compliance Officer must fill out this form.

An employee of your organization is requesting permission to open a brokerage account at Folio Institutional. The employee's access to this account is restricted pending your approval. Instead of providing duplicate account documents to employers, we grant you online access to view your employee's account statements, trade confirmations and other account details such as account holdings and transaction history.

Option 1: The Employee of our firm, as specified in the Account Owner Statement, is authorized to establish the brokerage account with Folio Institutional. In accordance with the requirements of FINRA Conduct Rule 3050, I will not require online access to account information for this employer. The employee's account restriction will be lifted without granting me online access to view the account, and I will not have the ability to view copies of account statements or trade confirmations electronically. Skip to Part 4.

Option 2: The Employee of our firm, as specified in the Account Owner Statement, is authorized to establish the brokerage account with Folio Institutional. In accordance with the requirements of FINRA Conduct Rule 3050, I will require online access to account information for this employer. The employee's account restriction will be lifted and I will be granted online access to view the account. Complete Part 3 and 4.

Option 3: The Employee of our firm, as specified in the Account Owner Statement, is not authorized to establish the brokerage account with Folio Institutional. I deny the employee's request to open this account. This account will remain restricted until the employee or their advisor closes this account. Skip to Part 4.

PART 3: Approve Account Opening With Access

We will lift the restriction on the employee's account, and grant you online access to view their account details once you are a user of our website. We will grant you limited access to view account statements, trade confirmations and other account details such as activity, holdings, and balances online.

1. If you are already a user of our website, enter your Username and Date of Birth below (once you have entered this information go to Part 4):
